

Cookie Policy for Retinello

Effective from August 15th, 2023.

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. They are used to enhance your user experience by saving your preferences and other information that helps the website function efficiently.

2. How we use cookies

At Retinello, we only use cookies to improve the functionality of the website. We do not use cookies to collect personal data, track your browsing history, or for marketing purposes.

We use the following types of cookies:

- Session cookies: These cookies are temporary and are deleted when you close your browser. They are used to keep track of your session on the website, so you don't have to log in again when you go to a new page.
- Persistent cookies: These cookies are stored on your computer or mobile device for an extended period and are used to save your settings and preferences between visits to the website.

3. How you can manage cookies

Most web browsers allow you to manage cookies by allowing, blocking, or deleting them. If you choose to block cookies, it may affect the functionality of the website and your user experience. You can learn more about managing cookies in the help section of your web browser.

4. Changes to this cookie policy

We may update this cookie policy from time to time. When we make significant changes, we will notify you by posting an updated version on our website.

5. Contact

If you have any questions about this cookie policy, please feel free to contact us at support@retinello.com.
